Aubrey Huff was the shining star on this ball club with 34 homers, 47 doubles, 91 runs, and 107 RBI to lead the team. Travis Lee socked 19 homers and drove in seventy. Julio Lugo added 15 dingers. The D-Rays were last in the league in homers (137). They hit .265 and led the A.L. with 142 stolen bases...Victor Zambrano led the pitching staff with a 12-10 record and 132 strikeouts. Closer Lance Carter (47 K's) was next with seven wins. The staff posted a 4.93 ERA and walked 639 batters...Tampa Bay scored 715 runs and allowed 852 for the year...Hal McRae was let go as manager after the '02 season...Lou Piniella was hired to bring his fiery attitude to the ball club. All he could do was sit and helplessly watch a team that finished LAST (again) 38 games behind division champion New York and eight games behind fourth place Baltimore.
