Mike Trout, 28, ended the pandemic-shortened season among major league leaders at the plate: home runs (17, tied for 4th); RBI (46, tied for 6th); and OPS (.993, 6th). Free agent newcomer Anthony Rendon spent his first year in an Angels uniform hitting 9 home runs and tallying 31 RBI. Justin Upton and Jared Walsh also connected for 9 homers. Shohei Ohtani added 7 jacks and 24 RBI...Perhaps pitcher Dylan Bundy needed a change-of-scenery: the 27-year-old former Baltimore Oriole led the starting staff with six wins, 72 strikeouts, and a 1.036 WHIP...The popular Joe Maddon, a member of the organization previously for 20 years, assumed field command once again as The Boss, but his ball club never strongly competed for the AL West title. The Halos sank to last place, 11 games out, at the end of August; however, they finished the 60-game schedule on the up-swing with a 14-10 September and fourth place in the final standings.
