Tiger Tails: Tyler Alexander set a major league record for a reliever after punching out nine consecutive Reds batters, August 2nd. Likewise, his ten K's in that appearance was the first 10-plus strikeout performance by a reliever since 2001 (Randy Johnson)...The long-awaited arrival of former #1 overall draft pick Casey Mize came to fruition August 19th. In his big league debut versus the White Sox, the 23-year-old struck out seven and walked none during his 4.3 inning stint. He allowed three earned runs in a no-decision. The Tiger phenom took a no-hitter into the sixth inning, September 11th, against the White Sox before yielding a double to Yolmer Sanchez...Miguel Cabrera became the eighth man in Detroit franchise history to reach 2,000 career hits in a Tiger uniform, August 30th...Matthew Boyd was pitching a perfect game before allowing a single in the fifth versus the Indians, September 20th...Manager Ron Gardenhire stepped down as field boss, September 19th, suffering from multiple health problems. Detroit was 21-29 at the time he retired and 132-241 overall in nearly three full years as skipper... Team Leaders: Cabrera (10 homers, 35 RBI); Jeimer Candelario (29 RBI); Spencer Turnbull (4 wins); Boyd (60 strikeouts).
