The Rockies held the top spot of the NL West by one-half game as late as August 12th with a 12-6 record. A seven-game losing skid from August 17-23 relegated them to the lower half of the division. They wrapped up the 60-game schedule, squeezed in during the COVID-19 pandemic, from that point, with a 13-19 mark...Trevor Story (28 RBI) led the offense with 11 home runs. Charlie Blackmon was the leader in RBI (42). Roland Arenado (8 homers) and Ryan McMahon [mick-MAN] (9 jacks) both finished with 26 RBI...On the mound, Antonio Senzatela led the pitching staff with five wins. Herman Marquez won four games and racked-up the most strikeouts (73).
