 The Reds kicked off the season with a lackluster start but came as close as two games to first of the NL Central June 16th after a win over the Brewers. For a 60-day stretch from July 3rd through September 12th, they held second place all to themselves right behind Milwaukee. The ballclub was 34-29 during that span. The Reds were just four games out July 11th, but following that date the Brewers played .600 baseball (42-28) to pull away. The red-hot Cardinals leaped over the Reds in the latter part of the season to garner second place at the end. Combined, the Redlegs were 19-19 versus Milwaukee and St. Louis...The highlight of the year came on May 7th when Wade Miley no-hit the Indians in Cleveland. He struck out eight and walked one during a ballgame which took only two-and-a-half hours to complete, the 17th no-no in franchise history...Miley won 12 games on a staff led by Tyler Mahle's 13 victories and 210 strikeouts. Luis Castillo (8-16) posted 192 K's. Rookie Vladimir Gutierrez, 25, impressed going 9-6 with 88 punch outs...The Reds racked up the fourth most home runs in the N. L. (222). Topping the list were Joey Votto (36 HR, 99 RBI); Nick Castellanos (34 HR, 100 RBI); and Eugenio Suarez (31 HR). National League Rookie of the Year Jonathan India belted 21 jacks, Jesse Winker 24. ***
