This is a season the Rockies and their fans would like to write off. By the third game of the year (April 3rd), the ballclub was under .500 and never tied or went above that mark the rest of the year...After April, the closest the team came to first place was May 5th, six games out and in last place with a record of 12-19...C. J. Cron's 28 homers and 92 RBI paced the offense. Free-agent-to-be Trevor Story clubbed 24 jacks and drove home 75 while Ryan McMahon belted 23 home runs...The pitching staff presented one of the best young arms in the game. German Marquez, 26, won 12 ballgames to lead the staff in addition to his 176 strikeouts...The Rockies committed 73 errors during the season, third fewest in the N. L.
