Team Leaders: Jose Ramirez (36 HR, 103 RBI); Franmil Reyes (30 HR, 85 RBI); Aaron Civale (12 wins); Zach Plesac (10 wins); Triston McKenzie (136 strikeouts)...The Tribe ignominiously became the first team in major league history to be no-hit three times in a single season. Two were complete games by the opposing pitchers; the third was a combined no-no by two Milwaukee hurlers...Skipper Terry Francona, who stepped aside because of health ailments for most of 2020, did so again on July 29, 2021 until the end of the year to deal with other new and lingering problems. He had earlier received a two-year contract extension. Coach DeMarlo Hale was named acting manager in Francona's absence...Ace Shane Bieber was placed on the 60-day I. L. July 25th and missed the remainder of the season. Bieber suffered a muscle-tear in the front of his right shoulder and was initially sent to the injured list, June 14th. He was 7-4 at the time with 134 K's...The high mark of the year came June 24th with the Tribe 10 games over .500, in second, only two games from the AL Central lead.
