Giant Leap: NL West Division champion and appeared in the post-season for the first time since 2016 after breaking mark for most wins while based in San Francisco (previously 104) and the New York/San Fran. franchise record for wins in a season...Ballclub finished first in the N. L. with 241 homers and second with 804 runs scored. Three players hit 20 or more home runs led by Brandon Belt's 29...The pitching staff was second in ERA (3.24), allowed the fewest walks in the big leagues (416), and tied the Dodgers for the most saves (56). Kevin Gausman led the staff with 14 wins and 227 K's...Logan Webb's superlative performance in the NLDS (1 win, 1 ER allowed in 14.2 innings pitched, 17 K's) wasn't enough to stave off elimination from the post-season. The Dodgers won the fifth and deciding game in the ninth on the Giants' home turf (2-1) to take the series, three games to two. San Francisco hit five home runs but just .182 for the series. Slugging first baseman Belt missed the entire series with a broken wrist suffered during an at bat in the last week of the regular season... Field Boss Gabe Kapler was recognized as the National League's Manager of the Year.
