 Chicago is the home base for a world-wide commodities exchange, but in the summer of 2021, Wrigley Field hosted its own trade/exchange. The Cubbies traded ten players--some of whom were prime cogs on the franchise's 2016 World Champions--around the trading deadline. Names such as Rizzo, Baez, and Bryant turned in their Cub pinstripes prior to moving to new locales. The team used a record 69 different players..Of those remaining, Patrick Wisdom became a minor sensation after hitting seven jacks in his first eight games. His 28 homers led the team and were the most ever hit by a Cubs rookie..Ian Happ (25 HR) counted the most RBI (66). Kyle Hendricks posted the most wins (14) and strikeouts (131). Four Cubs hurlers combined to no-hit the Dodgers at Dodger Stadium, June 24th. Starter Zach Davies was followed by Ryan Tepera, Andrew Chafin, and Craig Kimbrel to lock down the no-no. The Cubs held first place as late as June 24th. After the All Star break, they won only 27 ballgames to fall out of contention.
