For 98 days of the calendar, the Rays held first place of the AL East ultimately leading to their second straight division title. Their widest lead was 9 ½ games on September 7th. Within the division, the Rays finished 51-25...After shutting out the Red Sox in the first game of the ALDS, the ballclub was outscored 26-15 in the final three games, and outthit .341 to .211 for the series. Boston slugged 9 home runs and won the best-of-five match-up, 3-1...Brandon Lowe surprised with a 39 home run, 99 RBI campaign. Austin Meadows's 106 RBI topped the team. Tampa Bay batted .242 and collected 222 jacks for the year...The pitching staff turned in the A. L.'s best ERA (3.67). Regular starter Shane McClellanahan and "opener" Josh Fleming both won 10 times, the most on the staff. Oft-injured ace fireballer Tyler Glasnow struck out 123 opponents before being lost for the season July 31st and undergoing Tommy John surgery. His record was 5-2 at the time...Two Rays received post-season awards: Skipper Kevin Cash, considered to be one of the best field directors in the game (AL Manager of the Year), and Randy Arozarena, the AL Rookie of the Year, who hit .274, 20 homers, and drove home 69 runs. Helping his cause had to be hitting a home run and stealing home in the same playoff game (ALDS, Game 1), the first time that has ever been done in big league history.
