How do you pronounce his name?..Former #1 draft pick (26th overall, 2018) Nick Casas' last name is pronounced KOSS-iss...Next question. Where was Chris Sale? Here's the ugly Tale of Sale: In preparation for Spring Training, he fractured a rib during a throwing exercise in February after missing all of 2020 and most of 2021 in recovery from Tommy John surgery. The beleaguered lefty finally returned to start on July 12th (a no decision) then suffered a finger fracture on his left hand, July 17th (his second start), after being struck by a line drive on the mound. He underwent surgery on the finger the next day, but his season ended August 6th when his right wrist was accidentally broken riding a bicycle...The ballclub's struggle to make the post-season officially ended September 25th following a loss to the Yankees...The high-point of the year came June 26th with the team 11 games over .500...Injury stifled newcomer Trevor Story's season: In 94 games he slugged 16 homers and drove in 66 runs. Rafael Devers enjoyed an outstanding campaign, leading the Sox with 27 homers and 88 RBI. Alex Verdugo knocked home 74 and tallied 11 homers. Xander Bogaerts, third in A. L. batting average, added 15 jacks and 73 RBI. J. D. Martinez logged 16 home runs, 62 RBI, and 43 doubles...Michael Wacha regained his former above-average effectiveness, pacing the pitching staff with 11 wins. Nick Pivetta (10 W's) topped the mound corps by striking out 175 batters.
