Let's start with name pronunciation: (say-DAHN) Rafaela, (WHEEL-yair) Abreu...The Bosox hovered around the .500 mark most of the season. After April was in the books, the closest they came to first of the AL East division was seven games as late as July 29th. Their record for August and September (combined) was 21-34 prompting a skid to last place... Surprisingly, Rafael Devers was not an All Star, but he had that type of season (33 HRs, 100 RBI). In his first full season, 23-year old Triston Casas (KOSS-iss) drove 24 baseballs out of the park and knocked in 65 mates. He wound up third in Rookie of the Year voting. Rough-and-Ready Justin Turner, 38, contributed 23 jacks and 96 RBI while Adam Duvall slugged 21 homers in 320 at bats...Starter Brayan Bello was the team's biggest winner (12). Swingman Nick Pivetta struck out 183 batters, 11.5 per nine innings pitched...Previously highly-touted Chaim Bloom, hired to run baseball operations in 2019, was let go mid-September. Under his direction, the Red Sox were a ho-hum 356-352 (.503), ballclubs which finished as high as second (2021), but last three times ('22 and '23), including the 60-game COVID-shortened 2020 schedule...The loss of free agent Xander Bogaerts to San Diego obviously hurt.
