Manager Sam Mele's Twins (pron. MEE-lee) never spent a day in first place, but were right in contention at the All Star break (3rd, 6 games out). Their high point for the year would be July 2nd when they were second and two games behind. The ball club played better in the season's second half (46-32, .590); however, the Yankees simply ran away from the pack to win the pennant...Mele's Maulers led the major leagues with 225 home runs, runs scored (767), and RBI (722). They held the A. L.'s best batting average (.255). Harmon Killebrew blasted 45 homers to lead all of baseball. Bob Allison (35), Jimmie Hall (33), and Earl Battey (26) were the big boppers to complement Killebrew's homer barrage of the league. "Killer" Killebrew's 96 RBI led the team. Allison drove home 91. Zoilo Versalles' 13 triples topped the A. L....The pitching corps put up some flashy numbers as well. Camilo Pascual was among major league leaders with 21 wins against only 9 setbacks. Dick Stigman was next with 15 W's. Lee Stange logged 12 wins, Jim Kaat ten. Pascual finished the year among MLB mound stars with 202 K's (6th) and complete games (18, 4th place tie). Stigman whiffed 191 batters (8th). Bill Dailey tied three others for fourth in saves.
