Cincinnati native Peter Edward (Pete) Rose set foot on a major league field for the first time in a Reds' uniform against the Pirates at Crosley Field on April 8th for a regular season game. He went zero for three with a walk. Rose would start his remarkable career zero for eleven before tripling off the Bucs' Bob Friend for his first safety, April 13th. Jim Maloney won 23 games for this ball club and led the staff with 265 strikeouts and six shutouts. Lefty Jim O'Toole was the winner of seventeen and was second to Maloney with five shutouts. Joe Nuxhall won fifteen and John Tsitouris won twelve games. The staff ERA was 3.29 and led the N.L. in saves (36)...Vada Pinson hit for a "triple double" with 37 doubles, 14 triples, and 22 homers. Pinson played in all 162 games and led the team with 106 runs batted in. Frank Robinson hit 21 taters and drove in 91 runs. First baseman Gordy Coleman added 14 dingers and had 59 RBI. Pete Rose was named the National League Rookie of the Year. He played in 157 games, clubbed 25 doubles, nine triples, and six homers. Rose drove in forty-one and even led the Reds with 101 runs scored. Solid catcher Johnny Edwards hit ten home runs with 67 RBI and received a Gold Glove. The Reds hit .246 and 122 homers for the season...Cincinnati finished just 13 games behind the pennant winning Dodgers who won the season series, 10-8. They were seven games in back of second place St. Louis.
