Jim Hickman led the sophomore Metropolitans with 17 home runs; Frank Thomas was the team leader with 60 RBI. Thomas also popped 15 homers while the old Dodger, Duke Snider, added 14 more...Al Jackson led the pitching staff with 13 wins (can you believe it?) and 142 strikeouts. Carlton Willey was next with nine victories...MGR Casey Stengel was heard to ask when speaking of his inept Mets: "Can anybody here PLAY this game?" "Choo-Choo" Coleman's real name is Clarence...This was Gil Hodges's last go-round as a player before heading to D.C. to become the Senators' manager... The Mets finished dead last, 48 games behind pennant winning Los Angeles. New York native Ed Kranepool played in the majors at only 19-years of age...The Mets were LAST in the N.L. with a .219 batting average and ninth with 96 home runs. They scored 501 runs for the year...The staff was also LAST in ERA (4.12), runs allowed (774), and homers allowed (162). The second and LAST year the Mets played at the Giants' old playpen, the Polo Grounds. The wrecking ball took the ball park down in 1964.
