In an effort to put the 2023 season behind them and get back on a winning track with new veteran field boss Bob Melvin, the Giants used some bank to pick up two coveted free agents: Matt Chapman (27 HRs, 78 RBI, 5th Gold Glove) and starter Blake Snell (5-3 W/L, 145 strikeouts). Chapman, signed to a one-year deal with options for the next two, got off to a slow start at the plate, but found his comfort zone in the season's second half. Snell, meanwhile, inked a two-year pact with an opt out. He went on the injured list twice as well as paternity leave between the end of April and end of July. Upon his return, on July 27th, he struck out 15, allowing the Colorado Rockies zero runs at home in six innings, a major league record. Snell was even better on August 2nd in Cincinnati when he no-hit the Reds, 3-0, striking out eleven for his first win as a Giant. (At the end of the year, Snell opted out of his contract to become a free agent)...Logan Webb won the most games on the mound (13) and struck out 172 batters. Two young arms, Kyle Harrison and Hayden Birdsong, both 22, won 12 games between them and retained their rookie status. The Brothers Rogers, Tyler and Taylor, posted a combined 3.02 ERA in 113.1 innings out of the 'pen...Chapman led the ball club in homers and RBI. He was complimented by Heliot Ramos (22 HRs, 72 RBI) and Michael Conforto (20 HRs, 66 RBI)...After six seasons and one playoff appearance (2021, 107 wins), team President for Baseball Operations, Farhan Zaidi, was replaced by Giants royalty, former star catcher "Buster" Posey.
