Former Pirate and now the Mariners' designated hitter, Richie Zisk was the team leader with 21 home runs. Al Cowens, who hit 20 dingers, led the team with 78 RBI and tied for the team lead with Bruce Bochte in base hits (151). Shortstop Todd Cruz slugged sixteen home runs while Dave Henderson added fourteen and Bochte twelve. Bochte was second with 70 runs batted in. Second baseman Julio Cruz was the team leader with 83 runs scored. Mariners' batters hit .254 for the year and 130 home runs. They were fifth in the A.L. with 131 stolen bases...Free agent pitcher Gaylord Perry signed with the ball club on March 5th. Perry, now 43-years of age, was 10-12 for the season with six complete games and 116 strikeouts. Number One starter Floyd Bannister was the pitching staff's leader with 12 victories and 209 K's. Excellent closer Bill Caudill struck out 111 batters and won twelve games out of the bullpen. The staff ERA was fourth in the league at 3.88 and first in strikeouts (1,002)...The M's longest winning streak was five games; the longest losing skein was seven games...They were never more than 17 games from first in the AL West. The Kingdome welcomed 1.07 million fans through its turnstiles in '82.
