Following a game June 19th, against the Yankees in New York, manager Ron Washington was admitted to hospital for quadruple bypass surgery. The skipper had been battling health issues for years. The Angels were 36-38 with Washington managing from the dugout. Bench coach Ray Montgomery served as manager the remainder of the season after it was determined Washington would not be physically able to return... "The Kiid," Mike Trout, was healthy enough to play in 130 games, mostly as designated hitter. He finished the year with 26 home runs and 64 RBI. Jo Adell finally displayed the talent expected of him it seemed forever. He led the team in homers (37) while Taylor Ward slugged 36 and topped the ball club with 103 RBI. Adell was second with 98. Zach Neto reprised a 20+ homer season with 26 four-baggers. He drove home 62...The pitching staff recorded a 4.89 ERA. Jose Soriano won the most games (10); Yusei Kikuchi posted the most strikeouts (174). Closer Kenley Jansen, now 37, warmed up his rubber arm enough times to finish among the top ten in saves throughout MLB.
