AVALON HILL'S TRADEMARK NAME FOR ITS BASEBALL MANAGING GAME

1983 ROSTERS

FEATURING ALL 26 MAJOR LEAGUE TEAMS FROM THE 1983 SEASON

The Avalon Hill Game Co.

4517 Harford Road - Baltimore, Md 21214 - 301-254-5300

How best can we remember the 1983 baseball season? Perhaps, as the final time Carl Yastrzemski and Johnny Bench came to bat, ending brilliant major league careers that were filled with days of narcotic stories - events that curttailed the careers of Willie Wilson, Willie Aikens, Jerry Martin and Steve Howe. 1983 was the season of Toronto, Ron Kittle and his rampaging White Sox and the season that saw the Cal Ripken, Jr., led Orioles capture the World Series in four straight victories after an opening game, 2-1, loss to the National League kings, Philadelphia Phillies. Yes, the 1983 baseball season was one with marked high and low moments. Chicago made a mockery of the American West race, finishing a whopping 20 games in front of second place Kansas City and 39 ahead of cellar dwelling Seattle. The Birds did not have it that easy in the East, putting on a late season spurt that carried them to a six game cushion over Detroit. Milwaukee, the bangers of 1982, fell to fifth, 11 back, and had injuries to blame for their demise. Fans thronged to the ballparks in record numbers - 23,991,053 watching American League action and similar turnouts in the National League where Los Angeles and Atlanta put on a spirited West race, ending when the Dodgers battled back to take the flag by three games. The East was a race that nobody wanted to win -

Every major league team would love to have Dave Stieb in the clubhouse - he is leading the Blue Jays to the top of the American League.

First, St. Louis tried to trade George Hendrick, but wound up using him at 1B.

until Philadelphia went down the stretch in a fury, killing off the Pirates and Expos. Bill Madlock, Pittsburgh, was the NL batting champion with a .323 mark, while Wade Boggs, not even named to the all-Star team, led the AL with a .361 average - a full .22 ahead of runnerup, Rod Carew of the Angels. San Francisco's Atee Hamaker won the NL ERA title with a 2.25 ledger and the AL ERA crown went to Rick Honeycutt, Texas, who had a 2.42 mark - but wound up the season with the Dodgers in a swap that sent Dave Stewart to the Rangers.

USING THE ROSTERS

The PENNANT RACE roster booklet contains name-by-name team listings, various batting, fielding and pitching values, and individual data on all 26 major league teams. If you so desire, you can cut out the individual teams for quicker access while playing but it is not necessary to enjoy all the action of Baseball 1983. Abbreviations used on the team sheets are: BAT: Batting Value of the Starting Players and Bench Personnel; DH: Designated Hitter for the American League only; END: Endurance; FLD: Fielding Value of Starters and Bench Personnel; LHP: Left Handed Pitcher; RHP: Right Handed Pitcher; POS: Position(s) played during 1983; POW: Power Value of Players and SPD: refers to the stealing ability of players. For further explanation, a rating of '8' is the highest value attainable by a batter and +2 is the limit for fielding. In pitching, a '5' is the highest grade and a '3' in endurance is very high - most pitchers have a '1' in this category. Additional roster booklets may be ordered from Avalon Hill, 4517 Harford Road, Baltimore, Md., 21214. Consult current price list for prices. PENNANT RACE is a staff designed game from Avalon Hill Game Company and the 1983 booklet was prepared by Las Vegas Sports Handicapper, Jim Barnes, also the designer of the Statis Pro Series. PENNANT RACE is copyrighted by Avalon Hill Game Company and all rights are reserved. Each season, Avalon Hill Game Company will update the roster booklet and plans are also underway to recreate some of the most interesting baseball races of all time. Special seasons that appeal to you the most should be signified, by mail, to Avalon Hill for our consideration.

STATS-PRO AS A STABLEMATE

One of the most exciting adventures of table top baseball is 'taking your favorite team through a full season of play', enjoying those moments of victory and suffering through the 'agony of defeat.' However, up until now, you could never see just how your team was faring in the pennant race - mainly because you are playing JUST ONE team and ignoring the others in your league. No longer - Avalon Hill Game Company has the solution. Play Status-Pro Baseball Game, using your favorite team, and couple Status-Pro with our new PENNANT RACE, using this game to play the 'remaining games on the daily schedule.' Status-Pro is a game built around individual cards and all the players will show you the same skills as they did in 1983 - so, you can actually recreate the daily happenings of your favorite team - making all the lineup decisions and calling for steals, hit and run plays as you see fit. When your team is through, you find out how the rest of the league fared by using PENNANT RACE - simply throwing the dice and obtaining the rest of the day's results. By keeping track of starting pitchers, on our special score-sheets, you will also get the proper rotation when your team goes up against another. Through the 'stablemate' approach, you will be able to enjoy all the rigors of managing a team through the 'dog days of summer' and PENNANT RACE will enable you to see exactly how your team fits into the standings. This is a whole new concept in sports gaming replay and a method that will certainly appeal to the player who wants to go that extra mile for the fullest entertainment value. For details on how to order Status-Pro Baseball, write to Avalon Hill Game Company, 4517 Harford Road, Baltimore, Md., 21214, or telephone 301-254-5300.
